

Please do not overturn the no call list. We appreciate our private time with our family in the evenings. If we wish to do business with someone we would rather seek them out instead of them bothering us at home. Thank you for your consideration.